Release of Liability

- A. We are a loosely organized not for profit group of Christian families. The leadership is made up of those who have volunteered their time to organize activities for KWCHEA.. Participation in any event is strictly voluntary, with no member being required to attend any meeting or event. Neither KWCHEA, nor its leaders, nor its members are liable for any injuries or damages whether connected with a group event or not.
- B. At every event, parents or a designated care giver are responsible for their own children. Under no circumstance can KWCHEA, its leaders, or its members assume any liability for the safety of participants at any meeting or event.
- C. It is expected that any member or his child or guest who damages property or who causes injury, either willfully or through neglect, will take personal responsibility for his action. However, KWCHEA, its leaders, or its members will not be involved in any way in such situations. Any person, whether member or not, who has such a claim will be directed to discuss the offense individually with the party he believes to be responsible. The outcome of such a problem is out of the realm of responsibility of KWCHEA, its leaders or its members.

I have read the above release of liability and agree to hold KWCHEA harmless in the event of any damages or injuries to me, or to the designated care giver that I have appointed to be responsible for my children at an event, to my children or to my property. I further understand that it is my responsibility to inform a person take the place of a parent at an event, of the release of liability that has been signed, and their attending the event places them under this release of liability.

I have also read the policies of KWCHEA, and acknowledge that KWCHEA operates according to the principles listed therein. I understand that my information provided on this form will be added (unless indicated otherwise below) to the KWCHEA directory. I agree to respect the privacy of others in our group in regard to sharing of personal contact information. As a member, I agree not to misuse the personal information by sending forward, selling contact information, or soliciting in any form.
